DAY 1

Nurturing tomorrow:
Developing managers and leaders for sustainable futures – Ideas Incubator

When: 4th April 2024 · Timings: 9.30 – 18.30

Where: Centre for Unframed Thinking (CUT)
Rennes School of Business, 2 Rue Robert d'Arbissel

CREM, UMR CNRS (IGR-IAE, University of Rennes) and CUT (Rennes School of Business, RSB) invite you to attend a two-day event with the overall theme for day 1: Nurturing Managers and Leaders for a changing world.

This day-long workshop aims to engage participants in deep thinking, conversation and action on how to nurture future and current managers and leaders in and for a changing world of work, in order for them to contribute to and develop sustainable futures. Participants are encouraged to reflect on and share their experiences, learning, teaching practices, ideas and questions and to work together on the conception of shared projects/outputs which will endure beyond the day.

The morning will consist of individual sharings/provocations from guest speakers. In the afternoon participants will present brief ‘ideas’ they are currently working on or thinking about as a springboard for discussion leading to the formation of working groups leading to the co-creation of ideas and projects.

Guest Speakers:

- . Pr. Elena Antonacopoulou, University of Lincoln and GNOSIS Research (Cyprus)
- . Pr. Gibson Burrell, Manchester University (UK)
- . Pr. Jean-Francois Chanlat, Paris Dauphine (France)
- . Pr. Karen Dale, Lancaster University (UK)
