

17th EURAM Early Career Colloquium

*Future-proofing early academic careers:
thriving with AI and beyond*

25 - 27 March 2026

Toulouse School of Management – Toulouse Capitole University, France

Apply by 25 November 2025

EURAM Early Career Academics, do not miss this unique opportunity to develop your research in business or management and develop your professional network in a vibrant environment of peers, senior mentors, and the EURAM top management team.

For all those interested, please visit our website for more information on the event and click here for testimonies of previous EECC participants.

After the acceptance of your application in December, you can register online for the 17th EECC. The registration fees should amount to 290.00 € (VAT may apply).

ERASMUS+ Staff Mobility for Training

Early Career Colloquium participants can apply for ERASMUS+ funding through their institutions via Staff Mobility for Training agreements to cover costs such as travel, accommodation & subsistence.

EURAM scholarship

EURAM will support 10 EECC accepted applicants, waiving the registration & the 2026 membership fees, and cover a fixed budget (max. 1,000€) for the travel and accommodation expenses.

All candidates accepted to participate in the 2026 EECC can apply for this scholarship, which is open to early-career scholars with limited funding and strong alignment with colloquium goals.
